

Jackson Hole, Wyoming

February 21 to 28, 2009

Howdy! Come and join us in the wonderful Jackson Hole area at the walk-out /ski-in Inn at Jackson Hole in Teton Village, just a brief bus ride from the historic town of Jackson Hole and its famous town square. They had 605" of snow last season on its 2,500 acres of terrain on the two mountains of Apres Vous and Rendezvous, so you can count on plenty of snow to enjoy yourself. There is something for everyone, from rolling groomed trails and expansive bowls to exciting chutes and endless backcountry. After a full day on the slopes, don't forget to stop at the Mangy Moose, a 40 year-old Teton Village institution, for snacks and après ski entertainment with your fellow skiers or non-skiers alike. If you need to relax your aching muscles, a dip in the outdoor heated pool or jacuzzi at the Inn will do wonders for you.

Not a skier or taking a day off, or even after skiing? In just a few minutes you will be in the town of Jackson Hole via regular scheduled bus service at your doorstep to visit its art galleries, restaurants, bars, National Museum of Wild Life, Mainstage Theater and plenty of interesting stores to shop. Don't forget to walk the famous boardwalk at the Town Square with its impressive gates made from thousand of antlers. Restaurant choices abound, but don't forget to stop by The Million Dollar Cowboy for drinks and/or dinner. Just don't fall off their saddle barstools! Treat yourself to one of their famous Buffalo steaks. Close by you'll find the Silver Dollar Bar and Restaurant at the Wort Hotel. You won't be able to pry the genuine silver dollars off their bar and I don't think they will let you try.

A must for the skiers is a day of skiing at the Grand Targhee Resort in Idaho, a pleasant hour's bus drive from Jackson Hole. This is an optional activity but well worth it. Just watch out for the moose and make sure you take your camera with you! You will find many Kodak moments with impressive backgrounds.
